The Court asked whether there was any reason why judgment should not be pronounced. Because no sufficient cause to the contrary was shown, or appeared to the Court, the Court adjudged the defendant guilty as charged and convicted and ordered that: Pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, it is the judgment of the Court that the defendant is hereby committed to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons to be imprisoned for a term of:

Defendant shall pay a fine of $ 500,000 (five hundred thousand dollars) as to Count 1 of the Information.

The criminal fine shall be paid within fourteen days of the entry of judgment by wire transfer to the Clerk of the United States District Court for the Central District of California, and confirmation of the completed wire transfer shall be provided to the Offices (Tax division, Northern Criminal Enforcement Section, U.S. Department of Justice).

The parties further agree that, if any funds currently custodied in SG Kleinwort Hambros Bank (Jersey) for the benefit of U.S. clients come into the permanent possession of Strachans or any related entity, then those funds will be paid over to the United States as an additional fine.

Special Assessment: Defendant shall pay a special assessment of $400.

Pursuant to U.S.S.G. § § 8D1.1 and 8D1.2 and the factors set forth in Title 18, United States Code, Section 3553(a), including the nature and circumstances of the offense and the history and characteristics of the defendant, the need for the sentence imposed to reflect the seriousness of the offense, to promote respect the law, to provide just punishment for the offense, and to afford adequate deterrence to criminal conduct,
